

Kerrie is a children's writer and storyteller known for her engaging and imaginative stories. She has a passion for creating captivating narratives that captivate young minds and foster a love for reading and storytelling.

As a children's writer, Kerrie uses her creativity and storytelling skills to craft tales that are both entertaining and educational. Her stories often feature relatable characters, exciting adventures, and meaningful life lessons. Whether it's a magical fantasy world, an animal-filled adventure, or a heartwarming tale of friendship, Kerrie's stories have a way of capturing the imagination of young readers.

In addition to writing, Kerrie spent twenty years working in schools as a storyteller, bringing her stories to life through live performances. She knows how to engage her audience with expressive gestures, dynamic voices, and interactive elements, making the storytelling experience interactive and memorable for children of all ages.

Kerrie understands the importance of fostering a love for reading and storytelling in children, as it helps develop their language skills, imagination, and critical thinking abilities. She strives to create stories that not only entertain but also inspire and empower young readers to explore the world of literature.

Whether through her written works or live storytelling performances, Kerrie's dedication to children's literature shines through, making her a beloved figure in the realm of children's storytelling and writing.

