

Animals to the rescue

Follow the antics of these amazing Australian bush animals as they foil the poachers and other adventures in this easy-to-read graphic chapter book.

Led by Great Owl, Koala, Platypus, Snake, Crocodile, Kangaroo and more, the animals use their skills to save their friends.

Laugh along with the kookaburra's when Dingo tells his Dad jokes, and will he escape the poachers when he steals their bacon off the BBQ? Will Dingo and the other animals accept an invitation to eat with the poachers? Can the animals save all the colours of the earth? Will crocodiles teeth turn into marshmallows?

So much fun for reading levels 5 years to 9 years old.

Extract

"You scared the living daylights out of me Wallaby."

A colourless Wallaby stood beside Possum.

"Sorry Possum. But what's going on? Yikes! Did you know you have no colour?"

Look at yourself, Wallaby

Wallaby went to the billabong and looked in.

No! No! No!

"Oh, my golly gosh!!! I'm colourless"

"Shush Wallaby, stop being so colourless Kangaroo yawning.

dramatic," said a

Next came a family of wombats, two Emus, a Cassowary, several Brolga, three more Kangaroos, a Crocodile, an Echidna who looked like he had no quills, and a large opaque Tarantula.