

Buttons and Fitzwinkle The Trilogy. Advanced readers 9years to adult.

Book One: Finding the mortal World.

Two young pixie brothers come down in a landslide to the mortal world. They must battle the mortal world and the world they come from to find their father Peter Rosewood, and not be captured by their witch mother. Maudia, who wants to steal their magic and make them her slaves. She will go to no ends of devious tricks to capture her sons, but she cannot find a way to enter the mortal world YET!

Buttons faces mortal school while keeping up his skills as a magical. Will it be enough!

Will the mortals they befriend help keep them safe or are they in danger too.

Book Two:

The boys are given an artefact but must break the code to find where their father might be. While Buttons is proving to be very gifted in both worlds his older brother Fitzwinkle is finding his way as a magnificent cook. Along with the help of Susan he creates dishes that tempt the taste buds of friends who start to buy his creations. Will this be a source of income for the boys?

How will Buttons cope at High School?

What happens when they follow the clues to New Zealand? Will the Tohunga help find Peter?

Book Three:

The final chapters. Will they defeat Maudia? Will they find Peter? How will their lives change in this thrilling conclusion?

Follow the boys as they travel to the land of magicals, New Zealand, Switzerland, Cayman Islands and Ireland following clues and facing dangers at every turn.

Book Four: Maybe!!!!
