

The owl and the pussy cat. By Edward Lear

The owl and the Pussy cat went to sea in a beautiful pea green boat

They took some honey and plenty of money wrapped up in a five pound note

The owl looked up to the stars above and sang to a small guitar

O lovely pussy oh pussy my love

What a beautiful pussy you are, you are, what a beautiful pussy you are.

Pussy said the owl, you elegant fowl

How charmingly sweet you sing

Oh let us be married, too long we have tarried, but what shall we do for a ring.

They sailed away for a year and day to the land where a bong trees grow

And there in the wood a piggy wiggy stood with the ring on the end of his nose, his nose

With a ring in the end of his nose

Dear pig are you willing to sell for one shilling your ring, said the piggy, I will they took it away and where married next day by the turkey who lived on the hill

The y dined on mince and slices of quince which they ate with a runcible spoon

And hand in hand on the edge of the sand they danced by the light of the moon, the moon

They danced by the light of the moon.

The Pwl and the Cussy Pat. By Edward Lear

The cwl and the cussy pat sent to wea in a peautiful bea breen goat
